User Documentation

The image shows a user login form with a light gray background. At the top, the text 'User login' is displayed in a dark gray font. Below this, the label 'Username *' is followed by a white rectangular input field. Further down, the label 'Password *' is followed by another white rectangular input field. Below the password field, there are two links: '> Create new account' and '> Request new password', each preceded by a right-pointing chevron and separated from the input fields by a horizontal dotted line. At the bottom of the form is a red rectangular button with the text 'Log in' in white.

Registration successful. You are now logged in.

So once you've create an account you can just log in using your credentials on the left hand side of the home page:

A user login form with a light gray background. At the top, it says "User login" in a blue font. Below that, there are two input fields: "Username *" and "Password *", both with red asterisks indicating they are required. Each field has a light gray border and a small red "x" icon on the right side. Below the password field, there are two links: "> Create new account" and "> Request new password", both in a blue font. At the bottom, there is a red button with the text "Log in" in white.

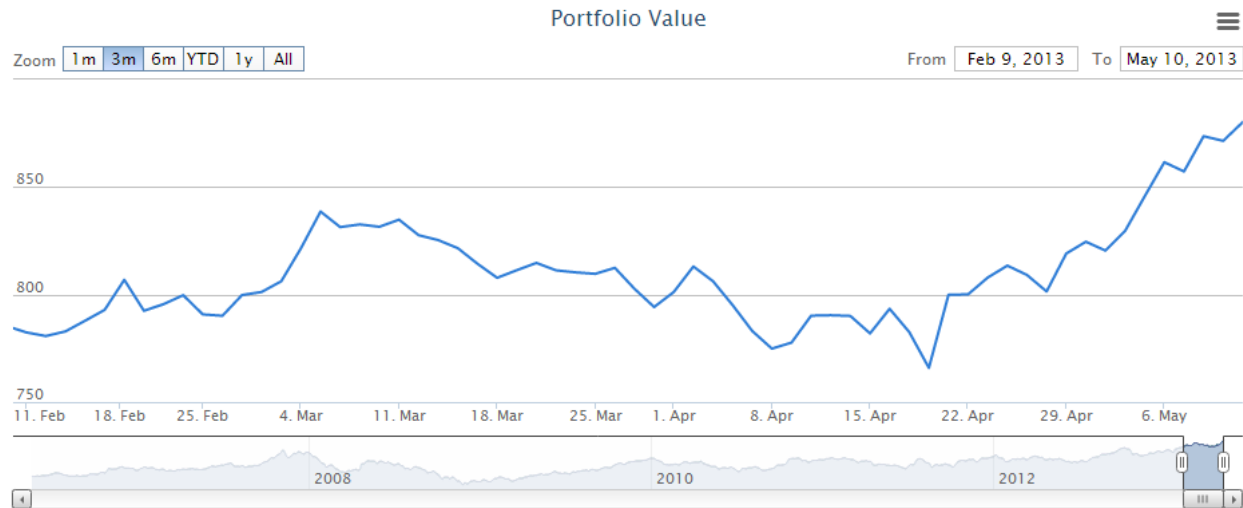

Once you log in with the correct credentials and click the log in button you are presented with the user menu of tabs to select:

You can click portfolio to view your current portfolio value as well as how your portfolio has grown since the league began. This information is displayed nicely as a graph:

Portfolio

You can click the buy tab to make a purchase of a given quantity of a desired stock. Once clicked, the buy page displays a text box for you to enter the stock ticker name along with a 'Add Symbol' button and your current balance:

Buy

Message Output:

Add Symbol

Balance: $999480187.40

Symbol
